DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE HERE

E. J. McDermott Speaks To Large Audience In Cloverport Last Tuesday Night--Makes A Graceful Speech, Full Of Facts And Advice For Both Young And Old Voters.

MANY WOMEN PRESENT

Just like playing blindfold to vote for a man you have never seen and the Democratic voters of Cloverport had the handkerchief taken off their eyes last Tuesday night when Mr. E. J. McDermott, Democratic candidate for Lieutenant Governor, spoke to them in this city. His speech was like a big basket of fruit and he handed out some pieces that were both good for Democrats and Republicans. He explained what it meant to vote and the who does not vote one way or the other doesn't know how to appreciate his opportunity. A man cannot fully appreciate his eyes until he has lost his eyesight and a voter cannot understand what suffrage means to him until he has lost his vote. He went on to state that a man should think more about the matter of voting, study the candidates, the platform, and then vote.

Mr. McDermott had a good deal to say of O'Rear. He spoke of him highly in a personal way, but made it plain he did not like O'Rear's way in many things. He said that O'Rear reminded him of a cook a Bardston friend of his had once who stole some rabbits. The cook heard that the lady of the house had been told that she had stole a steak and tried to straighten up the matter with her. "Miss Thompson," said the cook, "You know me didn't steal your steak." Mrs. Thompson answered, "Betty you know you did steal those rabbits." "Well, Miss Thompson," said the darkey, "Me don't intend to discuss rabbits with you." He said O'Rear would discuss anything but the real thing.

Mr. McDermott was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Severs. He left Wednesday morning and many Cloverport citizens had the pleasure of meeting him.

Brown Hardin

The wedding of Miss Mabel Brown and Mr. Virgil K. Hardin was solemnized at the home of the bride near Brandenburg on the afternoon of the eleventh of October at three o'clock. The Rev. J. J. Willett, of Hardinsburg performed the ceremony.

Mr. Hardin is a well-known and prosperous young farmer of Breckenridge county, while the bride is the daughter of Mrs. B. F. Brown. She is unsurpassed in every attribute that goes to make up lovely womanhood, and she leaves a host of friends in Meade county whose hearts go with her to her new home and new life, wishing her health, happiness and prosperity.—Meade County Messenger.

BEAUTIFUL WEDDING

Miss Anne Sterett Jarboe, of this City and Mr. LeRoy Ramp, of Kansas City, Married Last Wednesday.

The wedding of Miss Anne Sterett Jarboe and Mr. LeRoy Ramp was solemnized Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Crawford Jarboe. The Rev. Mr. James T. Lewis, pastor of the Fordville Baptist church, performed the ceremony.

The only attendants were the ribbon bearers, Miss Eva Bell Plank and Miss Katharine Moorman. Mr. John Felix Jarboe and Mr. Sterett Jarboe. Miss Plank wore a pink gown and Miss Moorman wore a pale yellow chifon.

The ceremony took place in the large front parlor before a beautiful altar of pink and white cosmos. The fire place was decorated in pink cosmos and green foliage with pink lights shining through the flowers. A beautiful wedding bell of pink dahlias hung from the center of the ceiling. Green foliage was festooned over the square piano and book-case, lighted with pink and green candles. From the stairway in the front hall hung a fringe of green foliage and the decorations were carried out in green and pink in the back parlor, where Miss Rebecca Willis and Mrs. Proctor Keith rendered a sweet musical program.

The bride, who entered on the arm of the groom, was in a lovely gown of white material, made V shape and slightly empire. The waist line was finished in the back with a broad sash which extended to the bottom of her dress. Her hair dress was a simple, girlish head band of white velvet. She carried an arm bouquet of bride's roses, which she divided among the Girls Club.

Refreshments of ices in hearts with cake were served. Mrs. Fred Fraize assisted the family in receiving the guests during the reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Ramp left on the afternoon train for Chicago and a trip east. They will be at home in Kansas City sometime in November.

Announcements Received

Friends in this city have received the following announcement:

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Taylor Whitmarsh announce the marriage of their daughter Adele to Mr. Wallace Duncan Pierce on Tuesday, October seventeen, nineteen hundred and eleven, Louisville, Kentucky.

Mr. and Mrs. Pierce will be at home after November the first at "Linda Vista," Rome, Ind.

LEAVE CLOVERPORT

Mr. and Mrs. Hardaway Will Go To Bewleyville To Make Their Home. Mr. Larkin Gibson Takes Charge Of Oil Office.

Deep regret will fall over a large circle of friends when they learn that Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hardaway and their daughter, Miss Aliene Hardaway, and son, William Glen, leave this week for Bewleyville.

Mr. Hardaway represented the Standard Oil Company in this city for more than a year and Monday turned it over to Mr. Larkin Gibson. He also sold his team and wagon to Mr. Gibson for $600. The change was made on account of an offer made Mr. Hardaway by his brothers and father, who have given him complete charge of the Hardaway home and farm, near Bewleyville. Mr. Pierce Hardaway, who has been manager of the farm, leaves this week for North Dakota.

The Hardaway family will be greatly missed in Cloverport for they took an active interest in every good movement for the town and have made many warm friendships here. Miss Hardaway was pianist of the Methodist Sunday school and Fourth Vice President of the Epworth League. She will enter a well-known Kentucky College the first of November.

Not A Candidate

I am not any longer a candidate for Representative—on Prohibition ticket—owing to an accident to my petition while I was in Louisville attending the Sunday-School convention. W. L. Macey sent the petition to the Clerk's office by Willie Basham who claims he lost it between W. L. Macey's and Hardinsburg. Said petition had enough signatures to allow my name to appear. After consulting Judge Mercer and J. Haswell, Jr., in regard to transferring the name to another petition, they say it cannot be legally done; so my name will not appear on the ballot, as I desired, this being the last day of grace. I want to thank my many friends for their kindness toward me.

C. L. Bruington; Oct. 23, 1911.

Keeping The Dollars At Home.

Ten years ago a Farmer put his initials on a Dollar Bill. The next day he went to the nearest town and spent it with a Merchant. Before the year was out he got the Dollar Bill back. Four times in six years the Dollar came back to him for Produce, and three times he heard of it in the pockets of his Neighbors. The last time he got it back was four years ago. He sent it to a Retail Mall Order House. He has never seen that Dollar since, nor never will. That Dollar will never pay any more School or Road Tax for him, will not build or brighten any of the Homes of the Community. He sent it entirely out of the circle of usefulness to himself and his neighbors.

CLOVERPORT POSTAL SAVINGS BANK

Will Be Opened Monday, November 6. Save Your Dimes And Uncle Sam Will Take Care Of Them. No Taxes Have To Be Paid. Two Per Cent Interest Given

METHOD SIMPLE AND SAFE

The post-office is already the most popular place in the town and will have another attraction added to it Monday, November 6, when the Postal Savings Bank will be opened.

The best thing about putting your money in Uncle Sam's bank is you don't have to pay taxes. You get two per cent interest if you keep your money in the postal bank for a year. If you draw your money out before the end of twelve months, you lose your interest.

The system is simple. You can begin with a dime or a dollar. Buy a card for ten cents and every time you have a dime to save, buy a stamp and when you will have bought nine stamps you get a dollar certificate. A child can understand Uncle Sam's banking methods and it will, no doubt, prove profitable for the children as well as convenient for grown folks.

The Postal Savings Bank means more work, but no more salary for postmaster Oelze, however he seems to be pleased with the idea of being made a bank cashier for the U. S. Government.

Coffee War On.

New York, Oct. 19.—Today's coffee market opened with No. 7 Rio at 16c, the highest price since 18 cents, the year of the coffee famine in Brazil.

This high record comes when the coffee supply is 30,000,000 pounds greater than last year, when the stock coffee was 8c per pound in the New York markets.

Twenty-five principal importers to day reached an informal agreement to organize to fight the coffee trust, which is responsible for this high rate.

Friends Delighted.

The friends of Mrs. Sam Bishoff are certainly glad to know that she is recovering rapidly from a critical operation.

NARROWLY ESCAPED DEATH MONDAY

Head on Collision Happens Near Owensboro--Two Engines Badly Damaged--Ridgeway And Sawyer Engineers.

FIREMAN NOBLE INJURED.

The alleged disregard of orders and failure to respect train schedules is assigned as the cause for the wreck of fast train No. 166 and Extra No. 4, near the western limits of the city, when the two trains came together in a head-on collision at 7:08 Monday morning. The two engines were so badly damaged that they will have to be wholly rebuilt, while both of the tenders were completely wrecked, as was also a car of cotton seed meal that was consigned to the American Milling Company, of this city. The only person injured was fireman Noble, of the fast freight, who sustained several cuts on his face, when he jumped to the ground, after seeing that a collision was inevitable.

A Through Freight.

No. 166, a through freight, was in charge of Conductor Beatty and Engineman Ridgeway and was due at Conway, the long siding at the Owensboro Sewer Pipe Company, at 7:16. The work extra, which was taking a load of ballast to be used at the Rock Springs trestle, was on the main line at the time that the freight was supposed to have the right of way. The extra was in charge of Conductor Dorris and Engineman Sawyer.

The two trains met on the long curve south of Fifth street road and when the two enginemen saw the other train approaching, each attempted to reverse his engine, but they were then so close together that the collision could not be avoided. The work train is said to have been brought to a complete stop, but the freight, being a heavier train and the fog of the night having made the rails very slippery, it was impossible to stop. The engineman and firemen on both trains jumped to safety on seeing that the wreck could not be averted.

Immediately after the accident a wrecker was started from the shops at Cloverport, reaching here at 9:45, but it was late in the afternoon before the line was opened for traffic and even then the trains were unable to run to their scheduled time.

The passengers on the 8:35 east bound train that were coming to Owensboro were transferred to the street car on the Fern Hills line and were brought on into the city, while the west bound accommodation and the noon train were held in the Owensboro yard until the line was cleared up. The train due at 8:35 a. m. reached here at 12:18 p. m., and proceeded to Louisville. The noon west bound train was not delayed many minutes.—Owensboro Messenger.

Louis Mann At Macauley's This Week.

Louis Mann, the well-known character comedian, will present his latest successful play, "Elevating a Husband", at Macauley's Theatre, Louisville, all this week, beginning Monday night. The play is by Clara Lipman and Samuel Shipman. Miss Lipman is Mrs. Mann in private life and has won distinction both as a playwright and as an actress. One of her notable plays is "Julie Bon Bon", in which she and Mr. Mann jointly starred. The theme of that play was temperance French. "Elevating a Husband" is an American story, with its scenes laid in New York. In many of his successes, notably "The Man Who Stood Still" and "The Cheater", Mr. Mann utilized a German dialect, of which he is a master. In his new play, he eliminates the pronounced dialect and gives an entirely new characterization. The role he plays is that of a young New Yorker, with no conception of the worth of books or paintings beyond their counter value, but gifted with a keen business acumen that makes him successful in trade, who marries a young woman of "culture" and social ambitions.

A Little Lesson In Trusts.

Herbert Knox Smith, commissioner of corporations has been delving into the history of the tobacco trust. Here are some of his findings:
In 1890 the trust had $25,000,000 "capital." In 1908 this "capital" had grown to $316,000,000.

Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

The only Baking Powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar

A part of this "capital" is listed under the head of "good will"—$148,000,000. Whose "good will" is not stated, but certainly not that of tobacco growers or tobacco users.

In 1885 one part of the trust, the Duke Sons company, was worth the modest sum of $250,000. By the mere process of joining the trust it swelled to $7,500,000 and later, was treated to a further dose of $22,000,000 in "securities." Yes, and "earns" 19 per cent on that.

Now, what profits do you think this little measly Duke proposition of $260,000 has "earned" in 25 years? Oh, a matter of $39,000,000, or 15,500 per cent!

Really, gentlemen of high finance, how long do you expect the American public to stand this game of watered stock, industrial monopoly, rising cost of living, and commercialized politics?

Don't you imagine the worm will turn sometime?—Wichita (Kan.) Bacon.

C. H. S. NOTES

Prof. McCoy Trying To Banish Chewing Gum From High School Students--Wax Getting To Be A Nuisance

The exercises Thursday morning, (Oct. 18) at the High School were very interesting. At the beginning of the exercises a hymn was sung, after which Mary Benton favored the teachers and pupils with a piano solo—"Thoughts of Thee." Prof. Tanner made some splendid remarks about the need of being at school every day.

Prof. McCoy, who is trying manfully to banish chewing gum, made a "nice little speech," with some impressive points on this question.

No visitors were present. Prof. Tanner cordially invites the parents and friends of the children to be present on Tuesday and Thursday of each week which are exercise mornings.—C. H. S. student.

CALL FOR GREATER KENTUCKY

Convention To Be Held In Louisville Tuesday and Wednesday, November 14 and 15---All County Judges And Mayors Of Cities Invited

LIVE-WIRE CITIZENS WANTED

So many questions of vital importance to the future of Kentucky are pressing upon the people of the State for discussion and wise solution that it seems important again to call together in conference representative men from all parts of the State to consider present conditions and desire reforms and feasible methods of advancing the prosperity of the State. Such conferences heretofore held have resulted in great good, developing a better understanding of the needs of the state and a closer co-operation among its progressive citizens and promoting a clearer understanding of what can be done and how best to do it.

In this spirit such a State conference is called by the two State-wide organizations which we represent to be held in Louisville, Tuesday and Wednesday, November 14 and 15. The subjects to be discussed will cover the fields of Kentucky's needs. It is desired to have in attendance the live, public spirited men of every county and city.

At our request the Louisville Convention and Publicity League will make all arrangements for the entertainment of the convention. We are asking all County Judges, Mayors of cities and commercial and agricultural organizations to appoint a number of delegates, not less than five each, whose interest can be counted on, and whose advice will be valuable.—Geo. W. Cox, of Owensboro, President Federation of Commercial Clubs; J. W. Porter, of Lexington, President State Development Association.

Went To School Here Forty Years Ago

Dear Mr. Babbage: I told you a year ago if I could raise a dollar, I would take the paper again, so here it is. I am still stamping around here in Wyoming.

Yours respectfully,

Lovell, Wyo., Oct. 19, 1911.
P. S. I guess you remember when brother John and I went to school at Cloverport 41 years ago. John lives here in Lovell.
